

Decision by Basel Appeals Court on Bankruptcy Procedure

August 21, 2020, Basel (Switzerland) – The Native SA has today received an interim decision by the Basel Appeals Court dated July 24, 2020 in which the suspensive effect with regard to the bankruptcy procedure was confirmed and the case referred to the supervisory authority in debt enforcement and bankruptcy matters in order to decide whether the threat of bankruptcy issued against the Company is valid or void. Pending that decision, the appeals procedure against the bankruptcy decision is suspended, with the effects already decided on in April 2020 (see press release of April 28, 2020).
